Langho FC – Who We Are

Who We Are

Langho Football club was established over 50 years ago in 1972 and is situated in heart of the Ribble Valley, mid-way between Clitheroe and Blackburn in Lancashire.

The club operates across two separate sites. The Rydings is where adult 11 a-side football, 9v9 and mini soccer is mostly played. Our second site is at Northcote where youth football is mainly played on two 11 a-side pitches. In summer 2015 in partnership with the football foundation and private member funding, nearly £200K was spent improving the drainage on each of the pitches at both sites. Today these improvements have lengthened the playing season for each of our teams, and enabled our teams to play more games through the winter period.

The Rydings is home to the clubs social club built by the founder member of the club in 1999, and also the clubs own floodlit mini soccer 3G pitch. Built over a decade ago from club funds, the 3G pitch provides the majority of club teams a winter training venue and the local community an opportunity to play football all the year round.

Respect

Langho FC – Who We Are

Who We Are

Currently the club has 3 senior men's, 24 junior boys teams, a Ladies team and 2 girls teams playing football across different leagues in the region. With development football too starting at 4 years old there is opportunity for all genders of all ages to play football at the club is widespread.

Weekend football is played on both Saturday's and Sunday's with the Accrington and District Junior Football League also hiring the club's mini soccer 3G pitch for their development football games on a Saturday morning. A friendly welcoming environment exists at the club with the social club open on match days and available to hire for private functions throughout the year.

Langho football club was the pioneer of girl's football in the Ribble Valley setting up the first Ladies team. The current ladies team plays in the Premier League of the Lancashire FA Womens County league. The development of girl's football at the club has seen hundreds of girls and ladies playing football regularly each week, and we hope through the history and success of our girls and ladies teams, we have created a path for girls to join, develop and move into adult ladies football in the future.

Langho football club is a family club at the heart of the local community and our facilities are available and regularly used by many in the local community, including local business and schools.

Langho FC – How we Play

How we Play

Football is a game of passion but also a game of principle. At Langho, we believe in encouraging our players whether man or lady, boy or girl to play the game respectfully, within the rules of association football and to play to the best of their own ability.

Each player at whatever age they play are asked:-

- 1) To perform to the best of their ability in whatever area they are playing in.
- 2) To be respectful of fellow players, referees, managers and coaches at all times.
- 3) To follow the instructions of the team manager or coach only and play within the parameters they instruct.

Each Langho manager and coach will have their own ideas as to how their team should shape themselves during games. Parents should let the coach “coach”, and not interfere from the side-line by issuing individual instructions, possibly in contradiction to those being issued by the coach.

Game time and training sessions should be creative and fun, and should allow players to express themselves and play with freedom and without pressure.

Respect

Langho FC – The Langho Player

The Langho Player

In 1972, Langho Football club was born on the back of the then very successful Barcelona football club, and ever since any player playing in the colours of Langho Football Club plays in the Royal Blue and Maroon strip colours mirroring the great Spanish club.

A player, male or female, boy or girl playing football for Langho Football Club will

- 1) Be happy and enthusiastic about their football.
- 2) Be respectful to their fellow teammate, opponents, referees and coaches.
- 3) Arrive in plenty of time for their training session / match.
- 4) Be full of energy and enthusiasm, willing to learn and listen to instruction
- 5) Always try their best in whatever they are asked to do.

Respect

Langho FC – The Langho Player

The Langho Player

Depending upon what age the Langho player is at will determine what expectations exist for that player, but:

- 1) At the younger ages (up to age 11) within development football, we look for the Langho player to have fun, and learn and develop their footballing skills in a fun environment with no pressure from parents or coaches to become the best. Winning isn't important but listening, and learning is key, along with developing skills taught in practice.
- 2) At Age 12 upwards, when the player moves into youth football, a more competitive streak is required. Players need to be fitter and more determined but they must still have fun and enjoy playing in a more competitive environment. Player retention is key and each player must feel they are both part of and contribute to the success of the team.

Enjoying football at whatever level football is being played at, a Langho Player is hopefully a player that other players aspire to be like.

Respect

Langho FC – How we Coach

How we Coach

Creating a sense of excitement about sport is something our coaches are very passionate about. We are very confident in our ability to deliver an environment where player can develop their individual skills and techniques whilst becoming part of a great team and club.

Respect is earned by both the player and coach through hard work and this must compliment a fun, safe and trusting environment. Our coaches include current and ex-players and many are parents themselves. Being adaptable is the key as each individual player will undoubtedly need a different coaching style if the relationship is to grow and be successful.

Our coaches will aim to treat all the players in their care equally and aim to provide each player with sufficient knowledge to enhance their performance.

Specifically a coach will:-

- 1) Aim to provide a safe environment for players to learn and develop their ability.
- 2) Be positive in their instruction, encouragement and term of phrase.

Respect

Langho FC – How we Coach

How we Coach

- 3) Allow players to express themselves, and not berate individual players for making mistakes.
- 4) Listen to individual player needs, and be willing to adapt training / coaching sessions to suit the requirements of that player.

Players should be allowed where possible to take ownership of training sessions and whilst the coach is there to pass on their knowledge and expertise, and to initially guide players into a session, they should allow the player to express themselves as much as possible.

A good coach isn't driven purely by result. Whilst the aim of the game is to beat the other team, in the eyes of a good coach, "winning" is watching your players develop and grow, having fun, enjoying themselves and returning week after week to attend the next training session.

A Langho coach will always try to provide a positive atmosphere for their players to perform in, and be thankful for the effort of their players.

Langho FC – How we Support

How we Support

Football is a game of passion but also a game of principle. At Langho, we believe in encouraging our players whether man or lady, boy or girl to play the game respectfully, within the rules of association football and to play to the best of their own ability.

Key phrases exist that we follow:-

- 1) Encourage players to play and try new things.
- 2) Be positive in instruction and allow player ownership.
- 3) Allow the players to play, and don't kick every ball for them.

As a club, Langho actively supports its coaches through coaches Education and the FA Mentoring Scheme and will pay initially for a coach to broaden their knowledge.

Each coach is encouraged to book onto initially and complete an Introduction to Football course (previously FA Level 1 Coaching) delivered through the Lancashire FA. Coaches wanting to further their knowledge can then work up the coaching qualification path through Uefa C, to Uefa B and Pro-A coaching license.

Respect

Langho FC – How we Support

How we Support

Other coaching courses are available eg Level 1 and 2 Goalkeeping course, and as part of the level 1 course, each coach will receive a three year certificate in first aid and safeguarding children.

The welfare of children is paramount at Langho Football Club. Every coach at Langho is asked to complete a Criminal Record check and the FA Safeguarding Children course, and every three years these CRC checks have to be renewed. Coaches without a valid CRC check are not allowed to coach at the club, or have any involvement with children at the club. Langho FC is subject to an annual health check by the FA and without having the correct coaching and safe guarding qualifications in place the club will be suspended from football until the situation is corrected.

For parents and children, the club has a club welfare officer in place, Michael Cook. He is available to be contacted by phone 07703 941388 or email welfare.officer@langhofc.co.uk in confidence on any matter you may require advise or help on.
